Zorzi to represent WA at Australian Housing Awards

2019 HIA CSR Western Australian Home of the Year – Zorzi

Attention to detail, flair and innovation were key features in the winning home for the 2019 HIA CSR Western Australian Home of the Year, Zorzi for their 3 story home, said HIA WA Regional Executive Director Cath Hart.

“Zorzi’s Mt Pleasant home was an absolute standout and HIA’s judges said the detail in the construction was extraordinary - the design phase was meticulous in its consideration of the lifestyle and delivered to an unbelievable standard,” said Ms Hart.

Ms Hart said today’s 2019 HIA CSR Western Australia Housing Awards had a significant number of entries again in 2019, despite challenging market conditions.

“The designs and workmanship detail to come out of this year’s winners is a true example of what our members are capable of delivering in Western Australia,” she said.

“All of the winners and finalists winners at the 2019 HIA CSR Western Australian Housing Awards have really showcased their commitment and dedication to their clients and the residential housing industry”.

WA Housing Minister Peter Tinley also attended the 2019 HIA CSR Western Australian Housing Awards with an audience of 250 HIA members and industry professionals to celebrated the success of WA’s best residential builders.

Ms Hart said the award finalists were made up of winners from the Great Southern, Mid West, South West and Perth HIA regional housing awards.
