HIA welcomes new WA Cabinet

HIA WA Executive Director Cath Hart today welcomed Hon Mark McGowan MLA's announcement of his new Cabinet following Labor's election victory last weekend.

Ms Hart said the residential construction sector looks forward to working with the McGowan Government over the coming term.

"I look forward to working with all housing and development portfolios as we continue to focus on the next phase of WA's post-COVID economic recovery," Ms Hart said.

"I have congratulated the new Ministers on their appointments and will continue the strong level of collaboration and engagement HIA has developed over many years.

"I have also passed on my congratulations to the Premier after his victory at last weekend's election."

WA Premier Mark McGowan has appointed himself as new Treasurer, while the Hon John Carey MLA has acquired the Housing and Local Government portfolios.

Hon Rita Saffioti MLA will continue as Minister for Planning and Hon Sue Ellery MLC remains Minister for Education and Training.

Hon Tony Buti MLA has picked up the Lands portfolio, while the Hon Amber-Jade Sanderson MLA has been appointed Minister for Commerce.
